

Previous talks, exhibits and field trips:

Boston and Beyond: A Bird's Eye View of New England
curated by Ronald E. Grim, Norman B. Leventhal
Map Center, Boston Public Library

Field trip to the American Antiquarian Society tour led by Georgia Barnhill, A.A.S.

North by Northeast: Five Centuries of New England Maps Field trip to Historic Deerfield; exhibit tour led by David Bosse, Historic Deerfield

Boston's Made Land - A Walking Tour
led by Nancy S. Seasholes, author of *Gaining Ground:
A History of Landmaking in Boston*

Shore Lines: an Exhibit of Maps in Surveying the Shore: Historic Maps of Coastal Massachusetts, 1600-1930
book signing and gallery tour by Joseph Garver

Maps of the White Mountains
curated by Adam Jared Apt

California as an Island
curated by David Cobb, Harvard Map Collection

Early USGS Topographic Maps: Cartographic Portraits of the American Frontier, 1878-1893
curated by Arthur Krim

Cambridge Maps & Mapmakers
a presentation by Charles M. Sullivan Executive Director, Cambridge Historical Commission

A House Divided: Maps of the Civil War
talk presented by Earl McElfresh

THE BOSTON MAP SOCIETY meets at the Boston Public Library (for lectures and general meetings) or at the particular host site (for exhibits, guided tours or other field trip destinations). The schedule of upcoming events can be seen at the Society's web site: www.bostonmapsociety.org.

Membership Application

- New member
 Renewal

Name

Address

City

State

ZIP Code

E-mail

Telephone

Areas of Interest

Additional Name (for Joint Membership)

<input type="checkbox"/> Member	$35
<input type="checkbox"/> Joint Membership	$50
<input type="checkbox"/> Patron	$100
<input type="checkbox"/> Des Barres Society	$250
<input type="checkbox"/> John Bonner Society	$500
<input type="checkbox"/> Carleton Society	$1000

Make checks payable and mail to:

THE BOSTON MAP SOCIETY

P.O. Box 382438

Cambridge, MA 02238-2438

bms@bostonmapsociety.org

<http://www.bostonmapsociety.org>